How the Factbook is Organized

The Hampden-Sydney College Factbook is organized to present data on the student experience from application to graduation. Subsequent sections address faculty, the library, facilities, and budget data.

This iteration captures the Fall 2023 semester, as well as the 2022-2023 fiscal and academic years when applicable. The 2022-2023 year runs from July 1 to June 30 to align with the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS), State Council of Higher Education for Virginia (SCHEV), and Common Data Set (CDS) calculations. Because this report depends on data H-SC submits to IPEDS, SCHEV, and CDS, the Factbook is produced in the Spring semester of each calendar year. When possible, multiple years of data are provided to give a historical perspective.

Generally, data provided in this Factbook are generated from reports the College is required to submit to various entities, to include IPEDS, SCHEV, and CDS, as described above. When data is utilized from an external source, it is notated as such.

A Brief History of Hampden-Sydney College

The mission of Hampden-Sydney College has been, since stated by its Founders in 1775, “to form good men and good citizens.” In continuous operation since the first classes were held on November 10, 1775, the College is one of the oldest institutions of higher learning in the United States and holds the oldest (1783) private charter in the South. The first president, Samuel Stanhope Smith (1775-1779), chose the name Hampden-Sydney to symbolize devotion to the principles of representative government and full civil and religious freedom, which the Englishmen John Hampden (1594-1643) and Algernon Sydney (1622-1683) had supported and for which they had given their lives. They were widely invoked as hero-martyrs by American colonial patriots, and their names immediately associated the College with the cause of independence championed by Patrick Henry, James Madison, and the other less well-known but equally-vigorous patriots who comprised the College’s first Board of Trustees. The first students committed themselves to the revolutionary effort, organized a militia-company, drilled regularly, and went off to the defense of Williamsburg in 1777 and Petersburg in 1778. Their uniform was a hunting-shirt, dyed purple with the juice of pokeberries, and gray trousers. Garnet and gray were adopted as the College’s colors when sports teams were introduced in the 19th century.

The College, first proposed in 1771, was formally organized in February 1775, when the Presbytery of Hanover, meeting at Nathaniel Venable’s Slate Hill plantation, accepted a gift of 100 acres for the College, elected Trustees and named as President the Rev. Samuel Stanhope Smith, College of New Jersey (Princeton) Class of 1769. Within only 10 months, Smith secured an adequate subscription of funds and an enrollment of 110 students. Intending to model the new college after his alma mater, he journeyed to Princeton to secure the first faculty and visited Philadelphia to enlist support and to purchase a library and scientific apparatus. Students and faculty gathered for the opening of the first winter term on November 10, 1775.

Retention Rates

Retention Rates Description

The retention rates section shows the retention and graduation rates for the Fall 2020 to Fall 2022 cohorts. The Fall census date report for each cohort's first term is used as the base report, and the Fall census date report for subsequent Fall terms is used to determine the number of students in the cohort who remain enrolled.

- Continuous enrollment: The freshman-to-sophomore, sophomore-to-junior, and junior-to-senior retention rates reflect the students who were retained Fall-to-Fall, meaning they did not have periods of unenrollment at the College. This calculation does not include students who withdraw and reenroll. Students who withdraw and return are included in the overall (with reenrollment) count described below.
- Overall (with reenrollment): The overall retention rate per cohort, which includes returning students, is also provided. Per IPEDS requirements, a student who returns to the institution is always included with his original cohort for retention rate calculations.
